

BEST PRACTICES ACROSS THE JCI SENATES IN EUROPE

Country:	Germany
Name of the Senate Association:	Vereinigung der JCI-Senatoren Deutschlands Association of JCI Senators in Germany e.V.

Name of the Best Practice:	-Award for the most active JCI-chapter in Germany -Award for the JCI-chapter in Germany with the highest increase of members
Type of the Best Practice (event/project/award/financial contribution/etc.):	Award and financial contribution
Purpose/objective of the Best Practice:	Support and motivation for the active JC member in Germany
Since when organized, how often organized:	- Since about 2010 - Every year
Target group:	- JCI Chapters in Germany
Short description:	- Every year in January the most active chapters of Germany will be awarded (3 classes: up to 25 members, up to 50 members, more than 50 members). - Every year at the National Conference in September the chapters with the highest increase of members will be awarded - The Association of JCI Senators in Germany spends every year € 5.000 in total for these awards
More (practical) details on how it works, how it is organised:	- Most active chapter JC Germany has developed a detailed system for the chapters to receive points for activities, projects, visit of conferences and trainings and awarding Senatorships and golden needles (Awarded by JC Germany). The chapters with the highest number of points in their class will win. The first 2 places will receive a cheque.
